Windows On The World Wine Book | Wine Library Product Description: The 2001 edition covers every aspect of selecting, purchasing, serving, tasting and enjoying the wines of the world. Kevin Zraly, Master Sommelier at New York City's famous Windows on the World restaurant authors what has become the most respected course for wine knowledge. Windows on the World - Wikipedia Windows on the World was a complex of venues on the top floors (106th and 107th) of the North Tower (Building One) of the original World Trade Center complex in Lower Manhattan. It included a restaurant called Windows on the World, a smaller restaurant called Wild Blue, a bar called The Greatest Bar on Earth, and rooms for private functions. Windows on the World, New York's Sky-High Restaurant ... Windows on the World was one of the greatest restaurants New York City has ever seen. Located on the 107th floor of the World Trade Center, it offered guests soaring views of not only Manhattan, but also Brooklyn and New Jersey.

Windows That Rose So Close To the Sun - The New York Times When the towers collapsed, Windows on the World had more than $1 million worth of wine in the tower. Mr. Zraly also started a wine school attended by passionate amateurs and restaurant professionals. Its 14,000 graduates included untold numbers of wine stewards and cellar masters.
